Good morning Beth,

Thank you for your email.

I had a lovely Christmas and break, thank you. I hope you did too.

I will review the file, get a progress update from our solicitor and send over a further EOT as necessary.

In the meantime, I would be grateful if you could provide a copy of your EOT agreement to 31 December, as I do not have this on record. The most recent EOT agreement I hold is dated 28 November 2025, and I have not received a response to my subsequent request for an extension to 24 December. I have not requested an EOT until 31 December. Please accept my apologies if I have overlooked any recent correspondence.

Many thanks,

Amy

Subject: 25/01011/OUT

Good morning Amy,

I trust you had a good Christmas?

I note our EoT ends on 31st December and as the solicitors are progressing well with the S106, we would like to seek to extend this further to the 26th January to allow them to continue to finalise this agreement.

Best wishes

Beth
