

Dear Sirs

Living nearby and having been a client at this property I can confirm, despite online comments, that the swimming lessons that take place do not increase noise or disturbance in the area. The set up is very low key and causes no interference. The lessons provide so many benefit to young children of all abilities and needs without any issues and provides a much needed service to the area.

